Mark Alex Glowienko

798 Dovercourt Road   Cell: (647)380-7153
Toronto, ON   M6H 2X3   mark.glowienko@utoronto.ca

_____

Objective   To work professionally in a position that makes use of my background in graphic design and website development.

Profile
- Obtained a certificate in Graphic Design from George Brown College
- Extensive graphic design, typography, layout and document production experience. Proficient with graphic design software including Photoshop, Aldus Freehand, Adobe Illustrator and Microsoft Publisher
- Successfully completed numerous website and web application development projects (see website links below)
- Solid knowledge of major web development technologies: HTML, JavaScript, CSS, PHP, XML and AJAX. Experience with content management platforms: Joomla, WordPress
- Very reliable and flexible. Able to acquire new skills quickly. Good work ethic and positive attitude

Education

2012 – 2014   Seneca College, Toronto
Mechanical Engineering Technology Diploma

1994 – 1999   University of Toronto
BA and MA, Germanic Languages and Literature
- Participated in a one-year exchange program in Berlin, Germany
- Graduated with 'High Distinction'

1983   George Brown College, Toronto
Commercial Art Certificate

Work Experience

2015-2016   Parkdale Intercultural Association, 1257 Queen Street W, Toronto, ON Website Worker/ IT Technical Support
- Completely revised the design, coding and content of the organization website
- Consulted with staff to produce and maintain website content
- Provided computer hardware and software support and troubleshooting
- Provided physical and technical assistance with other projects as required

Summer 2013   Array Canada, Scarborough, ON CNC Operator
- Produced parts on a CNC lathe in a high production environment
- Loaded production code from LAN
- Set up material positioning jigs
- Changed cutting heads
- Insured that parts met specifications, documented production data

798 Dovercourt Road   Tel: (647)380-7153
Toronto, ON   M6H 2X3   mark.glowienko@utoronto.ca

_____

Work
Experience
(Continued)

1998 – 2010   MicroSystem Consulting (Self-Employment)
                          Application Developer/ Web Designer/ IT Support

- Completed numerous assignments as an IT contractor at the University of Toronto

- Worked with the CMS (Content Management System) team to design and develop websites for various departments at the University of Toronto

- Developed numerous in-house database applications using MS Access/SQL Server, Javascript/PHP, and various other
   IT development platforms

1985 – 1993   Print Estimator, Programmer/Analyst, Commercial Artist
                          Stanley Manufacturing Company, Toronto

                          Carried out duties in three different roles over eight years of employment:

3 years   Commercial Artist
- Designed and produced company and client artwork both manually and using graphic design software

3 years   Programmer/Analyst
- Automated company estimating, order-entry and inventory systems
   using DOS-based database software
- Automated art department (investigated graphic hardware and software, purchased Mac desktop computers and peripherals, trained staff)

2 years   Estimator
- Produced price estimates for company clients based on product specifications
- Advised clients on stock choices, printing finishes and production options

Portfolio
Websites

The websites listed below were all designed and developed by Mark Glowienko. This is also true for the content contained in these websites.

Portfolios of Projects Completed as 'MicroSystem Consulting' http://www.msctoronto.ca/portfolio http:// msctoronto.wordpress.com

Technical Portfolio - Seneca College 2013-2014
http://www.msctoronto.ca/seneca/gallery.html

Commercial Website Development - Parkdale Intercultural Association 2016
http://www.msctoronto.ca/portfolio/pia